NOMINATION GUIDELINES
Veteran Teacher Award

- The nomination packet must include the Checklist/Coversheet.
- The nomination packet should be a maximum of 10 pages, single-sided, not including the Checklist/Coversheet.
- Nominations must be delivered by the second Friday of January.
- Submit nominations to: Marian Greenblatt Education Fund, 11308 Tara Road, Potomac, MD 20854, or by e-mail to info@greenblatteducationfund.org.
- Do not send videotapes, loose-leaf binders, artwork, or letters of support from current students.

JUDGING CRITERIA, SUPPORTING EVIDENCE & LETTERS

Applicants will be judged using several broad categories outlined below. The supporting documentation and letters in the nomination packet should provide compelling evidence of an outstanding teacher in these areas.

Student Focus & Results

- The students demonstrate positive academic results compared to peers and benchmarks.
- The teacher motivates students to excel, with innovative instruction methods.

Commitment to MCPS

- The teacher contributes to the Montgomery County Public School system through sharing teaching practices, displaying leadership outside of their own school, and acting as a mentor for young colleagues.

Links to School Community

- The teacher is active in professional organizations and school activities.

Nomination for Rising-Star Teacher Award

Checklist/Coversheet

The Marian Greenblatt Education Fund is now accepting nominations for the Excellence-in-Education Rising Star Teaching Award. This Award replaces the First-Year Teacher Award. One Rising Star teacher will be awarded a $500 cash prize.
